

Eva Loring, CDA, RDA

If you're searching for an amazing lecturer who has extensive experience in dental education and compliance, look no further than Eva Loring!

Eva served as a dental assisting instructor at a technical college for 16 years. Her teaching ability is obvious when you hear her speak. She's highly professional and her programs are spiced with just the right amount of humor to keep it interesting.

Eva earned her Registered Dental Assistant's credentials through the Nashville Dental Society. She was awarded the national credential of Certified Dental Assistant through the Dental Assisting National Board. She was appointed to the curriculum writing panel to develop the model for the Tennessee Schools to Career pathway for Allied Health in middle and secondary schools. Her career in dentistry includes teaching, consulting, clinical dentistry, practice management, and practice startups.

Eva serves as a national speaker and trainer for Modern Practice Solutions. She has presented programs for the Fourth District Dental Society in Tennessee, West Central Kentucky Dental Society, Northern Kentucky Dental Society, South Dakota Dental Society, Georgia Dental Association and numerous presentations for specialists. She's worked with hundreds of dental practice in helping them achieve compliance and has had two published works in dentistry.

Eva will help your audience learn how to put OSHA and HIPAA compliance into everyday practice. Your attendees will walk away feeling that their time was well spent.

In Eva's free time, she enjoys boating with her husband on Kentucky Lake, and playing with her cats.
